

Pacific Christian Academy

Beginning our 95th Year

Chuck Lanier retires after 25 years of dedicated unselfish service at Pacific Christian Academy. He will be sorely missed. His love for the school and its students was seen in his every act.

Chuck's life has been dedicated to the continuing operation of the school. His goal was to see that the students received the proper education in a safe, spiritual environment. When there were problems, he worked to seek proper and equitable solution for all parties. He was there when students needed a way to school; he even picked up students when they needed a ride. He was willing to do anything that needed to be done, even the most menial task. He often did it himself because he did not want to impose on others.

When the school needed money, Chuck was there. He made sure all the fundraisers occurred. He would get the fliers published and sent out. He would call people to ask them to attend. He would make sure there were enough people to help. He would even do garage sales (which he disliked doing).

Chuck wanted to make PCA available to every student who wanted to attend. When a family could not afford tuition, he worked to find a way for the student to attend. He would look for scholarships, or even ask the school board to let a student attend without tuition when money could not be raised.

When we needed money to meet payroll, Chuck would cover it himself. He mortgaged his property and lent the money to the school. Even though he paid interest on the money, he lent it to the school interest free. Whatever the school needed, Chuck would find a way to see that it was supplied.

If Chuck had a fault, it was that he cared too much. Even though he has retired, he remains close by to assist when ever we might need him.

Thank you for your years of dedicated unselfish service, Chuck!

Sincerely,
